

LP Food at Work – Public Purpose Statement

At LP Food at Work, our purpose is to nourish workplaces and empower people to thrive through sustainable, healthy, and inclusive food solutions.

We are committed to making a positive and measurable impact on both society and the environment by:

- Promoting wellbeing at work through access to nutritious, locally sourced meals that support physical and mental health.
- Reducing food waste and environmental impact by prioritizing circular sourcing, responsible packaging, and carbon-conscious operations.
- Supporting local communities and producers through fair partnerships that strengthen regional economies and sustainable agriculture.

This purpose is embedded in our business strategy and guides every aspect of our operations—from menu design and supplier relationships to our logistics, digital platforms, and employee engagement initiatives. By aligning commercial success with social and environmental progress, we ensure that our growth contributes to a healthier planet and more equitable workplaces.

This statement is publicly available on our company website and has been formally approved by LP Food at Work’s Board of Directors, reflecting our long-term commitment to transparency, accountability, and meaningful impact.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'C Pilkington'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial 'C' and a long, sweeping tail.

Chris Pilkington
Director, Nov 2025